Elopement + Intimate Wedding Pricing Guide

Weddings for the Wanderers

I HAVE ONE RULE
WHEN IT COMES TO PLANNING
YOUR WEDDING:

THERE ARE NO RULES.

find me between bluff + brine

I'm Steph, photographer and wanderer. Throughout my life, I've moved somewhere around thirteen times. I was born in Florida, grew up in Massachusetts, and spent almost all of my twenties living in Montana. I've left pieces of myself in all of those places, and in return I've let them teach me and evolve me as I move through life.

This has lead me to photographing and working with some of the most amazing wedding clients in some of the most epic locations! I've been documenting weddings since 2014, and I love learning about what my couple's are envisioning for their special day, how they want to feel, and what's most important to them.

I tend to go against the grain with a lot of things, and I love working with people who do the same. I specialize in elopements and intimate weddings, and I split my time between MA and MT. The process of booking your wedding photographer takes trust, and having a deeper connection with me gives me the ability to capture those intimate moments on your wedding day. You know, the photos you'll really want to hang on your walls.

After the flowers have wilted, the cake has been eaten, and the music has stopped, the images I create will be forever, because I'm more than just your photographer. I'm your storyteller.

please remember

YOUR DAY IS ABOUT YOU. LET'S KEEP IT THAT WAY.

If you've decided that you want to put more energy into your marriage, rather than planning a big wedding, then keep reading! You're saying NO to stress, and YES to what you truly desire for one of the best days of your life! Throwing out the rulebook opens the door for endless possibilities and I'll be here to help you navigate! Eloping or keeping things small gives you the opportunity to really enjoy the intimacies of what this day is all about. It's no longer a production or performance for your guests. It's a day that's a perfect reflection of who you are as a couple and the life you share together.

When you choose to elope or have an intimate wedding, you're choosing your relationship over the pressure to please everyone else.

Cheers to that!

Where to begin?

Intimate weddings and elopements aren't this shameful, taboo kind of thing anymore. The focus is back on YOU, the couple and gives you so much freedom to plan the day as you envision it! IT'S YOUR DAY. And I support whatever your vision might be!

Your wedding day should be a reflection of who you are as a couple, not a performance for your guests.

Whether it's just the two of you, or 100 of your closest family and friends, this day is about celebrating your love. I tell people all the time, "plan the marriage, not the wedding," and keeping things intimate allows for your day to stay personal and flow in a way where you can actually be present for it.

My goal with each client is to not only deliver a beautiful product, but to give you a high quality experience. I spend roughly one year getting to know my couples. Between engagement photos, going out to dinner, endless video chats, texts, and emails, - I'm here to help you from day one! Your wedding day will come and go, and the other half of my job begins! I then, spend approximately the next 8 weeks curating and editing the most perfect moments from your day! Basically, we're going to spend a lot of time getting to know one another. I pretty much become a professional third-wheel, and I'm totally ok with it!

So, whether we're hiking up a mountain, snowmobiling into a winter wonderland, or standing on the ocean's edge, I got you. And I'm so thrilled to capture the first day of your next great adventure!

P.S. I'm a National Park junkie, so tie the knot in any National Park and I'll take $100 off your total and donate it to that park!

elopements are not less meaningful than large weddings

Elopements, intimate weddings, and big, fat, Greek weddings all hold the same value: Two people choosing each other forever. This is a day that cannot be re-done, regardless of size.

Why would I want full coverage of my intimate wedding day?

You can't have an adventure experience in an hour. This is more than just "a few quick pics" of your ceremony, and honestly, you deserve more than that. This is about celebrating your relationship! You've picked a whole day dedicated to it, so let's take the whole day to CELEBRATE it! Photography (and video) are the only tangible things you can take with you from your wedding day. Other than your marriage certificate, it's the only documentation that your wedding actually happened, and that's invaluable.

wedding collections

I consider weddings less than 100 guests to be an intimate wedding. I take 3 large weddings per year, so if your guest count is higher, I can accommodate that provided that I am available for your date!

Each package includes a get to know your questionnaire, location + planning assistance, video chats, copy of my magazine, wedding day questionnaire, all of the digital, high resolution edited images, online gallery, custom USB, and a one week sneak peek!

After you've decided to book your wedding with me, I send over a contract and invoice (with added taxes) via email. The retainer is half (50%) of the package fee, is non-refundable, and is due with the signed contract to secure your date. The remaining balance is due the week prior, or by the day of your wedding. Payment plans are available for the remaining balance and are split into 3 payments. A payment plan contract is required, and client must set up auto-pay.

I use an online gallery service to deliver your high resolution images. An invitation to view your gallery will be sent to your email no more than 6-8 weeks (8-12 weeks during peak season June-October) after your wedding. The gallery will stay open for 30 days from the date it was sent.

Travel fees of .60 cents/mile apply if traveling more than 50 miles. I am also available nation-wide! I kindly request the purchase of round trip airfare, 2 night's hotel stay, and 2 day rental car in addition to the session fee, provided that travel is not already included in the package.
